Smoked Books

Hurst & Co., the big New York publishers, had quite a disastrous fire last month, although many of their books were merely damaged by smoke.

We have bought 15,000 volumes of these "smoked books." They are of the Arington edition, nicely bound in cloth, with good paper and print. The tirst lot, 5,000 vols., are just as fresh as ever---all but the price. We have marked them 9c each, or 3 for 25c, to make them go fast The second lot, 10,000 vols., only a trifle smoked, at 6c each, or 5 for 25c. Besides, we have just a thousand volumes, more or less damaged by

INDIANA NIGHT AT POMPEIL.

A Perfect Performance at the Spectacle Promised To-Night.

Governor Matthews will be very much in evidence at Lincoln Park at the second presentation of "Last Days of Pompeli," to-night. The special celebration will be that of "Indiana night," the Governor's face will be represented in freworks, and there will be other special designs. The pyrotechnic display given by Pain & Son in connection with the spectacle is the most novel and beautiful ever given in this city, and has probably never been excelled anywhere, unless it was at the world's fair last year. Since the first production, on Monday evening, a large force of men have been at work perfecting the vast amount of machinery and scenery used in "Pompeil," and everything is now in readiness for what the managers claim will be a perfect performance to-night. There were but a few hitches Monday night, and they were not of a serious character, affecting principally the specialty acts. The performances of Prof. Weitzman, the high-wire walker, and the Martinez, who do an aerial revolving ladder act, which were greatly impaired by defective apparatus and cal-cium lights that worked badly, will be done much better to-night, and Weitzman's act, particularly, is expected to make a sensa-

It will take a very large attendance at all the performances of "Pompeii" to pay the local expenses of the spectacle, which are very large, aggregating nearly $2,000 each night. The purpose of its production here was to attract people to the city, and there is already evidence that it is doing this, for many inquiries are coming from out of town regarding seats. Aside from the beauty and novelty of the spectacle itself, it deserves patronage as a recognition of the public spirit and enterprise displayed

General Manager McLean, of the street-railroad company, has made adequate ar-rangements for promptly handling the crowd to-night. On the College-avenue line there will be special trains of cars every few minutes, and in addition to this there will be special trains on the North Illinoisstreet line, running up to Twenty-sixth street, and thence across to Central avenue and down, the return trip being made by the same route after the performance. Tickets for the "Last Days of Pompeli" can be bought down town at the Big Four ticket office without extra charge.

ON ACCOUNT OF THE BANKS.

Jenney Electric Motor Company Will Move to Springfield, O.

The Jenney Electric Motor Company, whose plant is located at 230 South Illinois street, will move to Springfield, O., in a short time. The exact time for moving has not yet been determined, but it is almost certain that the change will be made. Some time ago, in speaking of the matter, Mr. Jenney said to a Journal reporter that the company was not satisfied with its location here, on account of its inability to secure money from the banks on its collateral security. He said that the company was compelled to take notes in part payment for its motors and the the collateral sufficient capital to be able to not have sufficient capital to be able to hold the notes, and because it could not re-alize on them at the banks here it was compelled to curtail its business to some extent. He did not think that the banks had given his company justice in the mat-ter, as, he said, they asked too much col-lateral when a loan was made. The com-pany employs about fifty men.

NOT TILL THE LAST DAY.

Tax Commission Will Reserve Decisions on Appeals.

The Tax Commissioners' action on the several appeals which have been heard during the past month will not be announced until the day of its final adjournment, Friday of next week. More time was spent upon J. P. Dunn's appeals in the cases of the Indianapolis and Consumers' gas companies and the Citizens' Street-railroad Company than on any of the others. At its session to-day the commission will begin a rehearing of several railway assessments. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company has asked for a change in its valuation as fixed by the commission two weeks ago, and the following railroad companies have put in pleas for similar modifications: Toledo, St. Louis & Kansas City, Baltimore & Ohio, Chicago, Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, Chicago & Erie, Evansville & Richmond, Chicago & South Bend, Wabash, Elkhart & Western, Evansville & Terre Haute, Evansville & Indian-

Forfeited to Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 .- To-day's game was forfeited to the home team by a score of 9 to 0. The Senators could do nothing with Clarkson's delivery until the eighth inning, when, with the bases full, Mc-Guire hit for four bases, netting four runs, which tied the score. The visitors failed to score in their half of the eighth inning. and the home team went in in the ninth and batted out three more runs. It was then getting dark, and the "Browns," playing indifferently and not trying to put men out, Umpire Betts declared the game forfeited. SCHOOLBOOKS AT STORES.

It Will Not Be Necessary Hereafter to Buy of Township Trustees.

For the first time since the enactment of the new schoolbook law the pupils of the public schools will be able to buy the most of the books necessary from the dealers in books throughout the State, instead of having to hunt up the township trustee every Indiana Schoolbook Company, which publishes nineteen of the books, has consented to allow its books to be sold by the dealers. The books will be furnished to the dealers at 10 per cent, less than the selling price. Ginn & Co. are the contractors for the grammar and history, and these two books will have to be purchased through the trustees, as before, the contractors hav-ing refused to place them with the dealers. The contractors say that they cannot afford to pay the 5 per cent. Which they would be required to pay to the dealers. The books are already in the city, and will be ready in the stores by the time the schools open, next Monday.

AMUSEMENTS.

English's-Cleveland's Minstrels. There will be a short season of minstrelsy at English's Opera House, beginning tonight and continuing Friday matinee and evening. This, the first minstrel offering of the season, is by Cleveland's large company, which has added lustre this season in the person of the famous Billy Emerson, the king of the burnt-cork world. He has been abroad for some years, and returns with more fame andre fortune to entertain America for another season. Emerson is a great drawing card everywhere. He will appear in his specialties, as well as on the end in the first part, in all three performances here. Lew Benedict, the Crawford brothers, Banks Winter, William Henry Rice, the great burlesque artist, and a score of others will contribute to the big bill. Banks Winter has charge of the voca portion of the performance, and it is said to be a gem. There are eight solo ballad singers. The afterpiece is a burlesque on the United States Senate, and is called "The Sugar Tariff Senate's Reception," a good deal of fun being extracted from the "recent struggle in that body. The matinee to-morrow is at popular prices.

Park Theater-Two Comedies. New faces at the Park this afternoon will serve to stimulate the already large crowds of the present week. For the balance of the week Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hanley and their company of comedians will appear in two plays, "A Wild Goose Chase" and "'Squire Haskins." Specialties are introduced by Aimee Hanley, of club-swinging fame; Bob Harrison, recently with the Carneross minstrels; John and Reno Sanders, late with Tony Pastor; T. J. McEnery, the trick dancer; Fred Burt, the great juggler and balancer, and Alma Hearn, the singer and dancer. J. W. Murray, J. H. Berkley and Lola Stuart are also with the One of the most varied bills of the season will be that offered next week at the Park by Sherman and Morisey's comedians in "A Jay Circus."

At the Empire Next Week. Rice & Barton's comedians, in the popular musical farce-comedy, "McDoodle and Poodle," will be the attraction for next week at the Empire. This company is well known. The company this year is headed by Rice and Barton themselves. The Empire has a great drawing card this week in Unthan, the "armless wonder," Madame Yucca, the strong woman.

Kansas City Won by a Score of 9 to 3-Good Work by Roat and Hard Hitting by Henry and Mills.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KANSAS CITY, Sept. 5.-After dropping two games in succession to the Detroits the Kansas City "Blues" took their revenge on the Hoosiers to-day by defeating them with ease in the first game of the last series which they will play here this season. Daniels was in the box for the "Blues," and if all the Hoosiers had pounded his curves as freely as did Henry and Mills the result might have been very different. These two Hooslers had on their batting clothes, each hitting safely every time at bat. The rest of the visitors could do nothing with Daniels, their hits being well scattered. On the other hand, the "Blues" hit Cross hard and at the right time, and, in addition, played a perfect game in the field, shutting off the visitors every time it looked like they had a real good chance to score. Nichol's work in center was phenomenal, he pulling down a number of hard hits that looked good for several bases. For the visitors Roat put up the finest game at short stop ever played in Kansas City, killing a number of base hits. The work of the Hoosier outfield was perfect, but Mills and Shields each made costly errors. The "Blues" started off by scoring three times in the first inning on a base on balls and three clean hits. In the third they clinched the game by scoring four more runs on two singles, a triple and Klusman's home-run drive. After this the Hoosiers were never really in the game and their efforts at scoring were spasmodic and nonproductive. Attendance, 800.

The Attorney Wants the Ring. Attorney Willard Robertson has filed a suit in replevin against Police Superintendent Powell. The attorney claims that the superintendent holds a diamond ring which belongs to him and which he earned by defending a client. The ring was taken from the finger of a colored man arrested some time ago for petit larceny. The prisoner employed Robertson to defend him and proffered the ring as payment for the attorney's services. Superintendent Powell says that the ring is claimed by a pawn-broker and declines to turn the article over to the attorney until its ownership is made clear.
